

Schools' responsibilities as part of the Local Offer

This document provides you with extracts from the SEN and Disabilities Code of Practice 2014: Chapter 6 Schools and specifically the section that relates to Publishing information: SEN information report 6:74 The Regulations will give more specific details on this

The document cross references this information with the areas over which schools have a duty to comply with the Local Authority with regard to the Local Offer Chapter 4:32 Education Provision. You will see that the information required to be provided by the school is similar in both areas although the wording is slightly different.

Chapter 4: The Local Offer: 4.32 Education provision	Chapter 6: Schools: 6: 74 SEN information
The local authority must set out in their Local Offer an authority-wide description of the educational and training provision children and young people with SEN or disabilities can expect to be provided from the funding provided to providers of relevant early years education, schools and the full range of post-16 providers in their area. This includes information about the arrangements in place for:	The governing bodies of maintained schools and maintained nursery schools and the proprietors of academy schools must publish information on their websites about the implementation of the governing body's or the proprietor's policy for pupils with SEN. The information published must be updated annually and any changes to the information occurring during the year must be updated as soon as possible. This includes information about the arrangements in place for:
	The kinds of special educational needs that are provided for.
Identifying the particular SEN of children and young people.	Policies for identifying children and young people with SEN and assessing their needs.
	The name and contact details of the SENCO.
Consulting with parents of disabled children with SEN and disabled young people with SEN.	Consulting parents of children with sen and involving them in their child's education. Consulting young people with sen and involving them in their education.
Assessing and reviewing pupils' and students' progress towards outcomes, including how they work with parents and young people in doing so.	Assessing and reviewing children and young people's progress towards outcomes.

Chapter 4: The Local Offer: 4.32 Education provision	Chapter 6: Schools: 6: 74 SEN information
Supporting disabled children and young people and those with SEN in moving between phases of education and preparing for adulthood and independent living.	Supporting children and young people in moving between phases of education and in preparing for adulthood. As young people prepare for adulthood outcomes should reflect their ambitions, which could include higher education, employment, independent living and participation in society.
Securing expertise among teachers, lecturers or other professionals to support children and young people with SEN or disabilities – this should include professional development to secure expertise at different levels: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Awareness – to give a basic awareness of a particular type of SEN, appropriate for all staff who will come into contact with a child or young person with that type of SEN.</li> <li>• Enhanced – how to adapt teaching and learning to meet a particular type of SEN, for early years practitioners, class and subject teachers/lecturers and teaching assistants working directly with the child or young person on a regular basis, and</li> <li>• Specialist – in-depth training about a particular type of SEN, for staff who will be advising and supporting those with enhanced-level skills and knowledge.</li> </ul>	The approach to teaching children and young people with SEN.
Approaches to teaching, adaptations to curriculum, the learning environment and access to ancillary aids and assistive technology, including Augmentative and Alternative Communication (AAC) and disabled children and young people and those with SEN.	How adaptations are made to the curriculum and the learning environment of children and young people with SEN.
Securing the services, provision and equipment required by children and young people with sen or disabilities.	The expertise and training of staff to support children and young people with sen, including how specialist expertise will be secured.

Chapter 4: The Local Offer: 4.32 Education provision	Chapter 6: Schools: 6: 74 SEN information
Assessing and evaluating the effectiveness of the education and training provision they make for children and young people with sen or disabilities.	Evaluating the effectiveness of the provision made for children and young people with SEN.
Enabling disabled children and young people and those with sen to have access to facilities and extra-curricular activities that are available to those who use the setting.	How children and young people with sen are enabled to engage in activities available with children and young people in the school who do not have SEN.
Supporting the emotional, mental and social development of disabled children and young people and those with sen (this should include extra pastoral support arrangements for listening to the views of pupils and students with sen and measures to prevent bullying).	Support for improving emotional and social development. This should include extra pastoral support arrangements for listening to the views of children and young people with sen and measures to prevent bullying.
6.75 The above should include arrangements for supporting children and young people who are looked after by the local authority and have SEN.
6.76 Schools should ensure that the information is easily accessible by young people and parents and is set out in clear, straightforward language. It should include information on the school's SEN policy, named contacts within the school for situations where young people or parents have concerns, and arrangements for handling complaints from parents of children with SEN about the provision made at the school. It should also give details of the school's contribution to the Local Offer, including information on where the local authority's Local Offer is published.
6.77 In setting out details of the broad and balanced curriculum provided in each year, schools should include details of how the curriculum is adapted or made accessible for pupils with SEN.
6.78 Schools should also make data on the levels and types of need within the school available to the local authority. This data will be required to inform local strategic planning of SEN support, and to enable the local authority to identify pupils who have or may have SEN. Such data, collected through the School Census, is also required to produce the national SEN information report.	